Department of Economics and Business
Mission Statement

The mission of the Department of Economics and Business is to serve the Bronx and surrounding region by providing the highest quality education in business, economics and accounting, and also educating our students to become successful and socially responsible leaders in an academic environment that embraces diversity and fosters personal growth and development.