Program Outcome Report

In 2013, the Lehman College Counselor Education/School Counseling Program graduated 18 candidates. This represents 57% of the entering class. Employment as reported by the graduates indicates that 100% are employed.

In 2014, the Lehman College Counselor Education/School Counseling Program will graduate 24 candidates. This represents 62% of the entering class. Employment as reported by the graduates indicates that 100% are employed with 72% employed in schools.

As of May, 2014, there are 114 students matriculated students. In the Fall of 2013, we accepted one of our largest cohorts of entering students, and according to our current data, 100% will be continuing their studies in the program next year.

The program is a part-time, 48 credit program that is nationally accredited by the Council on the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Education programs (CACREP). As of the Fall 2013, the program course schedules were revised to accommodate to a three year instead of a four year program.

There is no licensure requirement in New York State.
