1. Type of Change: Title, Description

4. Rationale: The proposed changes reflect the course’s emphasis on the impact of globalization on the formation of local cultures. In particular, the changes reflect the course’s comparative study of related cultures, and its analysis of the influences that shape contemporary Puerto Rican and Latino cultures and societies, both on the island as well as on the mainland.

5. Date of Departmental Approval: April 25, 2012
