Job Title: Instructor or Assistant Professor - Library
Job ID: 6442
Location: Lehman College
Full/Part Time: Full-Time
Regular/Temporary: Regular

FACULTY VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Supports a college library through providing in-depth consultation with students and faculty and collaboration for the ongoing improvement of instructional programs and practices. Pursues an active scholarly agenda, performs supervisory duties, and participates in college- and university-wide programs and committees as assigned.

Reporting to the Chief Librarian, the Education Librarian serves as liaison to Lehman's flagship School of Education, providing reference and instructional services. The Librarian evaluates and selects print, electronic, and multimedia resources in collaboration with Education faculty to support teacher education degree programs and initiatives.

The candidate forges partnerships with discipline faculty, promotes a sophisticated understanding of pedagogical practices and methods, and develops tutorials and research guides to foster information literacy to undergraduate and graduate students. The Librarian conducts workshops for Education faculty on emerging technologies and electronic resources. Further, the Education Librarian supervises the Education Library and its staff.

QUALIFICATIONS

All titles require a Master's in Library Science (MLS), Master's in Library Information Studies (MLIS), or closely related discipline from an ALA-accredited institution. Also required is the ability to work with others for the good of the institution.

For appointment as Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor, a second graduate degree is required.

COMPENSATION

CUNY offers faculty a competitive compensation and benefits package covering health insurance, pension and retirement benefits, paid parental leave, and savings programs. We also provide mentoring and support for research, scholarship, and publication as part of our commitment to ongoing faculty professional development.
