A Reading, Documentary, and Discussion

Double Dads One Teen
A Queer Family's Trailblazing Life in the USA and Taiwan
by Stuart F. Chen-Hayes

Stuart Chen-Hayes offers a personal story about his 25-year loving relationship with his husband, Lance Chen-Hayes. He describes their journey in the United States and Taiwan as they build their family and encounter multiple legal barriers, including basic health care rights, legal marriage, and marriage equality.

As they experience schools both affirming and problematic for a two-generation gay family, they address their experience as gay fathers to a gay teen.

Stuart Chen-Hayes is Professor and Program Coordinator of Lehman College's School Counseling Program.
