GRADING POLICY

Your final grade will be based upon the following:

- 1) Preparation, Participation and Attendance (20%): You are expected to come to class having completed all the readings assigned for the class. There is a substantial amount of reading, which is both exciting and demanding. Prepare to be challenged as well as challenge the course materials. You are also expected to actively participate in all classroom debates and discussions, contributing your thoughts, questions, and ideas on the materials, as well as actively responding to your peers' interventions. This course aims to foster a critical, inclusive and productive dialogue about Latino literature, and in order to achieve this aim, everyone's engaged and consistent participation is crucial. More than two absences will result in a lowered grade. Arrival more than 10 minutes late into class counts as an absence.
- 2) Blackboard Posts (20%): You are responsible for weekly reflections which must be posted on Mondays by 11:59 p.m. These 250-500 word reflections should focus on a major theme, writer, historical context, linguistic/ figurative qualities or other issue that arises in the week's reading.
- 3) FINAL PROJECT (60%): Investigate an understudied Immigrant writer, past or present, resulting in a final paper of 5-6 pages. You may alternatively create a website, video essay, Wikipedia page, Instagram feed, or other project in consultation with the professor. There are five steps to this project which will be laid out in individual assignment sheets.
 - Proposal – 10% - Due Monday 10/12
 - Annotated Bibliography (at least 3 sources)– 10% - Due Monday 11/2
 - Rough Draft (3-4 pages) – 10% - Monday 11/23
 - Final Paper/ Project (5-6 pages) – 25% -Monday 12/14
 - Public Presentation (5 minutes) – 5% - Monday 12/7 & Wednesday 12/9

EXPLANATION OF LETTER GRADES (for written assignments)

Use these grade-descriptions to make sense of the grades that you receive for your work. They should help you to see where you are at present and where you might go in the future.

SUPERIOR (A)

Work which uses an assignment as the occasion for a piece of writing compelling enough to engage readers on its own terms. It presents an individual insight or viewpoint with enough fullness and cogency to command readers' respect, if not their assent. It complements its fresh thought by creating a distinctive voice through aptly chosen words and through sentences both grammatically accurate and rhetorically sophisticated. The inclusion of primary and secondary sources is required.

GOOD (B)

Work which meets all an assignment's expectations with clear competence. Usually lacking superior work's fresh thought or approach or its compelling development, good work nevertheless demonstrates its author's ability to respond intelligently to an assignment's demands, to structure and focus writing clearly, to select significant details and examples and to organize them effectively, to choose words accurately, and to revise sentences for conciseness and emphasis. The inclusion of primary and secondary sources is required.

FAIR (C)

Work which is entirely adequate but not more. Fair work meets the assignment's specifications, has a serviceable structure, and provides enough elaboration with appropriate examples or analysis to make its intent understandable. Its sentences are almost always grammatically correct and reasonably varied, its paragraphs usually coherent. Nevertheless, fair work lacks the sharp focus, the full and purposeful development, or the stylistic awareness characteristic of more accomplished work. The inclusion of primary and secondary sources is required.

POOR (D)

Work which is clearly inadequate in at least one way. Although poor work may demonstrate competence in other facets, its strength will be outweighed by one or two pervasive weaknesses: failure to engage meaningfully an important aspect of the writing task or to maintain a focus; skimpy or illogical development; significant errors in grammar or persistent lack of subordination; repeated distracting errors in mechanics or idiom. The inclusion of primary and secondary sources is required.

FAILURE (F)

Work which fails to respond acceptably to an assignment. Failing work may misunderstand or disregard the assignment's intent, lack any pattern or organization, or make enough errors in Standard English sentence structure to make it difficult for a reader to follow the author's thought. Failing work does not include only unsubmitted or uncompleted work; it includes any work which fails to meet an assignment's demands or to meet the minimum standards of college-level discourse. The inclusion of primary and secondary sources is required.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend all class meetings as scheduled, and are responsible for all class work missed as a result of late registration or absence. Excessive absences in any course may result in a lower final grade.
