BYLAWS OF THE LEHMAN COLLEGE SENATE
Adopted December 22, 1971
Last Amended February 8, 2017

Article I. Functions of the Senate

(As established in the "Governance Structure of Lehman College," approved by the CUNY Board of Trustees)

Subject to the authority and the Bylaws of the CUNY Board of Trustees, the College Senate shall be responsible for the formulation of academic policy and for legislative and advisory functions related to the programs, standards, and goals of the College.

Policy Functions

Section 1. Policy Functions

It shall have the power to formulate policy, to make policy recommendations, and to review the implementation of policy concerning:

a) Academic affairs, including the development of curricula; degree requirements; interdisciplinary programs; admission and grading practices and standards; and the awarding of credits, degrees and honors;

b) Long-range planning to achieve the overall goals of the College, within The City University and the College community, including responsibility for the continued development of the College;

c) Campus life and activities which promote the total educational program, including ancillary services within the College, student organizations; alumni and community relations; without regard to race, ethnicity, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical impairment, political and economic differentiations;

d) Practices and procedures for protection of academic freedom, the rights and liberties of each member of the Lehman College community, and the equitable settlement of internal campus problems.

Advisory Functions

Section 2. Advisory Functions

It shall have the following advisory functions:

a) To advise on the appointment of the President of the College and all full Deans;
b) To propose amendments to, and revisions of, the Bylaws of the CUNY Board of Trustees and to recommend action to other bodies with jurisdiction over The City University;
c) To assist the College Personnel and Budget Committee in the determination of budgetary priorities within the College;
d) To advise the President, Deans, and Department Chairmen concerning the procedures for faculty appointments, reappointments, promotions, tenure awards, and dismissal.

Legislative Functions

Section 3. Legislative Functions

It shall have the following legislative responsibilities:

a) To carry out by legislation the aforesaid policy functions;
b) To take such other recommending actions as the Senate may wish.

Article II. Organization of the Senate

Composition

Section 1. Composition

The Senate shall be constituted and members elected or appointed as provided for in the "Governance Structure of Lehman College."

Conduct of Elections

Section 2. Conduct of Elections

Faculty-at-large, Part-time faculty representatives, and Non-Teaching Instructional Staff elections shall be conducted by the Committee on Governance. The elections for Student Representatives shall be conducted by the Student Elections Board.

Election of Faculty at-large and Non-Teaching Instructional Staff Representatives and Senate committees shall be completed no later than the last Senate meeting of the academic year.

Non-members at Meetings

Section 3. Non-members

a) There shall be no substitutes or proxies in place of absent members.
b) Meetings of the Lehman College Senate shall be open to all members of the Lehman College community. Floor rights may be granted to non-members by majority vote of the Senate at the request of a member of the Senate.
c) Chairs of Senate Committees shall be entitled to floor rights to present their reports.

Officers

Section 4. Officers

a) Chairperson
The Senate shall elect by majority vote from among its members a Chairperson who shall preside in the absence of the President. The Chairperson shall be elected for a one-year term at the first meeting of the Senate each academic year.
b) Vice-Chairperson
The Vice-Chairperson shall be the Chairperson of the Student Conference who shall preside in the absence of the President and Chairperson. In the absence of the President, Chairperson and Vice Chairperson, the Chairperson of the Committee on Governance shall preside.
c) Secretary
A recording Secretary shall be appointed by the President.
d) Parliamentarian
A Parliamentarian shall be appointed by the President.

Vacancies and Replacements

Section 5. Vacancies and Replacements

When Senators-at-large, members of Senate committees, and departmental representatives to the Senate are elected, they shall be notified that if they go on leave during their term of office, they will be considered to have resigned from the Senate or the Senate committee unless they inform the chair of the Governance Committee that they will continue to attend meetings and fulfill their responsibilities as a Senator or committee member.

In the case of a departmental representative, the department shall elect a replacement to serve for the remainder of the term of office to which the original representative had been elected. In the case of a Senator-at-large or a Senate committee member, the vacancy in the Senate or on the committee shall be filled in the usual manner, with the new Senator or committee member serving for the remainder of the term of office to which the original Senator-at-large or committee member had been elected.

Article III. Meetings

Stated

Section 1. Stated Meetings

Stated meetings of the Senate shall be held once a month during the academic year, the times and dates to be announced at the beginning of each academic year.

Special Section 2. Special Meetings

Special meetings shall be held on the call of the President or Chairperson, on resolution of the Senate, or on the written request of fifteen members of the Senate. Such meetings shall be held within seven weekdays from the call for such meeting.

Agendas Section 3. Agendas and Calls to Meeting

a) Items for inclusion on the agenda of a stated meeting, including items for new business, shall be delivered in writing to the Chairperson of the Senate no less than eight calendar days before the meeting in order to appear on the published agenda. Items for new business shall be presented in the order received. For special meetings, the agenda shall accompany the call for a meeting.

b) The full agenda (including all attachments) for each meeting shall be mailed to each member of the Senate at least one week before the meeting. Published agendas shall be posted on appropriately designated bulletin boards (with full agenda, including all attachments, available in the Lehman Library) at least one week before the meeting. Senators are to be privileged to pick up copies of the full agenda with attachments at designated campus offices.

Rules of Order Section 4. Rules of Order

In all matters not covered by these Bylaws, the Senate shall be governed by parliamentary rules and usage as set forth in Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition, with the exceptions that the motion to lay on the table shall require a three fifths, rather than a simple majority for passage, and no motion "to reconsider and enter on the minutes" shall be entertained.

Quorum Section 5. Quorum

A quorum for both stated and special meetings shall consist of a majority of the members of the Senate.

Minutes Section 6. Minutes

Minutes of each meeting shall be distributed to the members of the Senate as soon as practicable after the meeting, but in no case later than seven calendar days following the meeting. Copies of the minutes shall be available to interested members of the Lehman College community at designated places.
Article IV. Committees

Section 1. Functions and Membership

a) The primary function of a Senate Committee shall be to study the subjects referred to it by these bylaws or by the specific action of the Senate, to formulate appropriate policies thereon, and to propose such policies to the Senate for action. A standing committee shall maintain a continuing review of policies affecting its area of concern.

b) Attendance at Committee Meetings: Any interested member of the Lehman College community has the right to be present at any meeting of any committee. Also, interested persons may request from the committee the right to speak to the order of business of the committee.

c) As a general policy, membership in committees of the Senate shall include faculty (including part-time faculty), students, and administrators, and shall be open to non-members of the Senate. Representatives of the administration serving on Senate committees shall be voting members and shall be appointed by the President. As a general principle, individuals may serve on not more than one standing committee of the Senate.

All members of standing and ad hoc committees present shall participate fully in the deliberations and balloting procedures involved in discharging the duties assigned. Every reasonable effort shall be exerted to see that all committee members receive adequate notice of all meetings.

Section 2. Standing Committees

Members of the Committee on Governance shall be elected at the first Senate meeting of the fall semester. Faculty members of all other standing committees, as hereafter specified, shall be elected by the Senate from nominations received from the Committee on Governance and from the floor; such elections shall be completed no later than the last Senate meeting of the academic year, with the term beginning at the start of the following Fall semester. Student members of standing committees shall be elected in the fall semester.

Faculty members shall be elected for staggered terms of two years. Student members shall be elected for a term of one year. Members of committees shall be eligible for re-election.

In the event more nominations are received than there are positions to be filled, election to standing committees shall be by majority vote. Each member of the Senate shall vote for a number of candidates up to the number of positions to be filled. In the case of ties, there shall be a runoff election.
Ad hoc Committees

Section 3. Ad hoc Committees

Ad hoc committees may be created by action of the Senate for specific purposes. Ad hoc committees shall be elected or appointed as the Senate may decide in each instance.

Officers

Section 4. Officers

Each committee shall elect its chair by secret ballot at its first meeting of the academic year. The chair of the previous year’s committee shall convene the first meeting. If necessary, the Committee on Governance shall designate a convener to call the first meeting.

Sub-Committees

Section 5. Sub-Committees

Any committee of the Senate, standing or ad hoc, may establish sub-committees for specific purposes. Members of such a sub-committee need not be members of the parent committee. The establishment and membership of each sub-committee shall be reported to the Senate.

Reports

Section 6. Reports

Each standing committee shall meet at least once each semester and shall report at least once during each academic year. Such reports may be presented to the Senate orally or in writing. Each special committee shall report at least once during its term of service. A standing committee may be required to report to the Senate at any time by the request of fifteen Senate members.
