HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Joseph “Fat Joe” Cartagena

Joseph Cartagena, known as Fat Joe, is a Grammy-nominated recording artist, author, actor, entrepreneur, philanthropist and media personality that hails from the Bronx, New York. With an acclaimed career that has spanned four different decades, Joe has cemented his legacy as a hip-hop heavyweight, having amassed several multiplatinum and gold studio albums, mixtapes, singles and collaborations, including “Lean Back,” “What’s Luv,” “Make It Rain,” and “All The Way Up,” among countless others.

Beyond his unprecedented longevity, Joe – who is of Puerto Rican and Cuban descent – helped play an integral role in bridging the intersection of hip-hop and Latin music, collaborating with Gloria Estefan, Thalía, Ricky Martin, etc. Joe has also displayed an eye for discovering and developing new talent, having signed the likes of DJ Khaled, Big Pun, Remy Ma and more to his Terror Squad label imprint.

The Bronx native expanded his résumé and became an author in November 2022, releasing his memoir, The Book of Jose, which pulled back the curtains on the trials, tribulations and triumphs throughout his personal life and professional career. Joe’s acclaimed memoir is in the process of being converted into a television series on Showtime that will be executive produced by Kenya Barris.

He has shined in acting roles, most notably starring alongside Kevin Hart and Tiffany Haddish in “Night School” as well as in Spike Lee’s “She’s Gotta Have It” Netflix series. He is also slated to star alongside Susan Sarandon in an animated comedy series called “The Movers” that is currently in development at FOX.

Joe is also the owner and founder of three UP NYC stores in New York City, which sells exclusive sneakers from brands such as Jordan and Nike as well as sports apparel, caps, etc. Most recently, Joe launched Rewind It 10, a men’s at-home beard and hair coloring collection that is made from high-quality, professional-grade, Italian formulas that allow men everywhere access to salon-quality results from the comfort of their home or local barber.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Jennie Elizabeth Franklin

Jennie Elizabeth Franklin, known as J. E. Franklin, is an American playwright best known for her groundbreaking play Black Girl (1969). Franklin was born in Houston, Texas in 1937, the eleventh of thirteen children in a family struggling with poverty. As a girl, she assisted her mother, who was a domestic worker for white families, and found solace in reading and writing with cast-off books and pencil stubs.

Franklin attended the University of Texas at Austin and graduated in 1964 with a B.A. in Languages, then moved to New York, where she developed a passion for theater. She later taught the children of sharecroppers in rural Mississippi, where she wrote her first play. Returning to Harlem, she joined the Harlem Writers Guild, interacting with writers including Maya Angelou, Alice Childress, and Rosa Guy.

Franklin penned Black Girl in 1969 as a response to the Moynihan Report, which linked Black poverty to Black matriarchy. Initially commissioned for television, it received critical acclaim and was later staged and directed by Shauneille Perry at the New Federal Theatre. Its success there led to an Off-Broadway run and a subsequent film adaptation, with Franklin writing the script and Ossie Davis directing.

In 1969 Franklin joined Lehman College as a part-time lecturer in the Department of Education, moving into a full-time faculty role in 1970. She taught at Lehman until 1975, writing several plays for Lehman students. During this period her work was published in notable anthologies, and she received numerous awards and fellowships for her contributions to the dramatic arts.

Franklin's impact as a playwright, educator, and activist is evident in her fearless exploration of the Black experience in America, particularly the experiences of Black women and families. Her journey from poverty to national recognition exemplifies her resilience and dedication to her craft. Franklin's formative creative years were spent at Lehman College and her legacy aligns with Lehman's mission to honor individuals who have made significant contributions to the arts and education.

CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE

From the Vice President for Student Affairs
Jermaine A. Wright, Ph.D.

Congratulations on staying the course as you stand on the threshold of a new chapter in your lives.

I want to take this opportunity to extend my sincerest congratulations and best wishes to each one of you. Let it soak in that you have accomplished no small feat, because according to the U.S. Census Bureau, only one-third of the adult population in the United States has a bachelor's degree or higher.

Your journey to this day has been marked by hard work, determination, and countless sacrifices. I am hopeful that you have used your time at Lehman College as a chance to try something new, have teachable moments, and establish lasting friendships. Today, as the first-ever Lehman College graduating class to have their names called and walk across the stage, know that you are a part of something truly remarkable.

Commencement is not just a celebration of academic accomplishments, it is a celebration of growth, transformation, and the pursuit of excellence. I know that you feel a sense of accomplishment and pride in the completion of your degree, and please know that the entire Lehman College community is proud of your achievements as well. Furthermore, as you embark on the next chapter in your life, whether it be a career or furthering your education, please know that Lehman College has provided you with a solid foundation.

Lehman College is a special place; it ranks highly among Hispanic Serving Institutions for helping students climb the economic ladder and has consistently been one of the top colleges in the U.S. with a high social mobility rate for helping students transition from low-income to middle income. The class of 2024 is now a part of this rich legacy, and you can take your place among the 90,000+ Lehman College alumni. As an alum, I hope that Lehman will always be an important part of your lives in the years to come.

I wish you continued success as you go out into the world determined to make a change. And in the words of James Baldwin, African American novelist, and activist, "not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changed until it is faced."

CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE

From the Director of the Career Exploration and Development Center
Bascillia Toussaint

Greetings from the Career Exploration and Development Center (CEDC)!

As you stand on the threshold of a new chapter in your life, I want to extend my warmest congratulations on your remarkable achievement. Graduating from college is no small feat and represents years of hard work, dedication, and countless late nights fueled by determination. As you step into the professional world, allow me to share some insights and encouragement:

1. Embrace your transition: The transition from college to the world of work or graduate school can be overwhelming. You're not alone; countless graduates have walked this path before you and have succeeded.
2. Define your north star: Your career journey is uniquely yours, so set your compass toward a purposeful destination.
3. Remain engaged: Attend industry events, engage on LinkedIn, and seek informational interviews.
4. Craft your personal brand: You have worked very hard to develop your compelling personal brand that showcases your skills, values, and authenticity. Use it!

5. Engage in lifelong learning: Graduation is not the end of learning. Remain curious, read, and seek mentorship.
6. Remember your why: When challenges arise, think of your "why." Why did you choose this career path? What legacy do you want to leave for your family and future generations?

In closing, may your career be a canvas where you paint your dreams into reality so apply that knowledge with passion and purpose. Lehman College has equipped you with the tools to be successful. Dream big, set audacious goals, and then take deliberate steps toward them. As an alumnus you have access to the services and programs offered at the Career Exploration & Development Center, so schedule your appointment today by calling 718 960-8366. Congratulations on a job well done and we look forward to helping you make the transition to a meaningful career.

From the Vice President for Institutional Advancement and Interim Director of Alumni Engagement
Kelly Brown

Congratulations to the class of 2024! As you embark on this new chapter of your lives, I am delighted to officially welcome you to the Lehman College alumni community.

With over 90,000 living alumni, you are now part of a vast network of individuals who have walked the same halls, sat in the same classrooms, and forged their own paths beyond the bounds of academia.

You are now ambassadors of Lehman College, entrusted with the task of upholding its values and contributing to its legacy. Whether it's through mentoring current students, participating in alumni events, or supporting fundraising initiatives, your involvement plays a crucial role in shaping the future of Lehman College and its community.

Furthermore, as alumni, you have the power to inspire future generations of students by sharing your post-graduate experiences and achievements.

I encourage you to remain actively engaged with the Lehman community. Whether you're attending networking events, volunteering your time, or simply staying connected with fellow alumni, your contributions are invaluable.

Congratulations once again, and welcome to the next chapter of your Lehman College journey.

Congratulations,
Class of 2024!

HERBERT H. LEHMAN
GOVERNOR, SENATOR, STATESMAN
1878–1963

Herbert H. Lehman represents the highest standards of honor and integrity in public service.

During four terms as governor of New York State and two terms in the U.S. Senate, he strove to abolish social injustice. He opposed discrimination while supporting reforms that protected union membership and established unemployment insurance. In addition, he began programs for slum clearance and construction of affordable housing. As the first director general of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA), he supervised the largest relief effort in history with the shipment of more than 25 million tons of supplies to refugees of World War II. In doing so, he created the forerunner of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees. UNRRA also led to the establishment of UNICEF, UNESCO, WHO, and other social agencies of the world organization.

Lehman College, the only senior college of The City University of New York in the Bronx, was formally dedicated in Governor Lehman's name on March 28, 1969, the 91st anniversary of his birth. Today, nearly 15,000 undergraduate and graduate students are enrolled in more than 140 degree programs. In addition, another 11,000 people are enrolled in adult degree and certificate programs. Each spring, the College commemorates Governor Lehman's birth, and its dedication in his name, by inviting a distinguished guest to deliver the Herbert H. Lehman Memorial Lecture.

Commencement Ceremony Conduct

CUNY Lehman College commencement ceremonies are formal and dignified events. Maintaining decorum and respecting the customs enhance the experience for graduates and their guests. Those who choose to participate must respect the rights of others, including Lehman staff, fellow participants, and invited guests. Students should respect their peers, faculty members, administrators, and guests who have come to witness and participate in the conferring of degrees.

Violations of commencement conduct guidelines may result in a disciplinary referral to the Office of the Dean of Students, potentially delaying the posting of the degree until the matter is satisfactorily resolved. You continue to be a CUNY Lehman College student until your degree is conferred. For more information concerning the student code of conduct, please visit the following site: <https://policy.cuny.edu/bylaws/article-xv/>. We kindly remind our students to give special attention to the rules and regulations for maintaining public order during the commencement ceremony. These rules are stated in article 129-a, also known as the Henderson rules, and are essential to ensure that everyone enjoys the event.

The two Code of Conduct rules related to the Henderson rules are listed below for your reference.

1. A member of the academic community shall not intentionally obstruct and/or forcibly prevent others from the exercise of their rights. Nor shall he interfere with the institution's educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution's instructional, personal, administrative, recreational, and community services.
2. Disorderly or indecent conduct on University/college-owned or controlled property is prohibited.

Please note that we request all students to follow certain ceremony etiquette guidelines.

- Decorations are prohibited on the academic gown and hood. Decorations should not interfere with attaching the tassel to the cap. Only the flat top of the black cap may be decorated.
- Words or items diminishing or slandering toward any group, individual or institution, the University, any faculty or staff member, and/or any student are prohibited on graduation caps.
- Graduates are expected to return to their seats after crossing the stage and remain seated until all students have crossed the stage and the stage party has exited.
- Graduates who display signs of being under the influence of controlled substances or alcohol will be removed from the processional and will not participate in the ceremony.
- When it is time for graduates to cross the stage, a staff marshal will signal each row to stand and come forward. Graduates will stand for approximately 15 minutes prior to walking across the stage and returning to their chair.
- After crossing the stage, graduates must return to their chair and remain seated throughout the ceremony. Circumstances permitting, the platform party, faculty, and graduates will participate in a recessional.
- Silly string, beach balls, air horns, and other related items distract from the dignity of the ceremony and are not permitted at the ceremony.

ALMA MATER

There's a college living in the green
Where the young and old and in between
Come to add their luster to the name
Herbert Lehman earned before they came
And because of what its children give
Lehman College finds the strength to live
As a whole nobly greater than its parts
And alive forever in their hearts
Oh may you, Alma Mater,
Grow in stature through the years
And cherish those who come to you
With hopes and dreams and fears
A home in which they learn to be Honest heirs of a precious legacy
Of beauty, truth, and eternal youth
In mind and spirit free
