

NR19-14
April 9, 2019

Lehman College Event Roundup April 16-30

Lehman College hosts and presents a number of performances, concerts, and cultural activities throughout the year. These events are open to the public and admission is free unless otherwise noted. These events are open press; media wishing to attend any of these events should contact media.relations@lehman.cuny.edu for more information.

Here is a list of what's happening on campus from April 16-30:

April 16

Lehman College Faculty Jazz Ensemble

Description: The Lehman College Faculty Jazz Ensemble, directed by Allan Molnar, will perform a wide variety of jazz and Latin jazz classics.

Details: 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 16 in the Recital Hall, Music Building.

Contact: For more information, contact the Lehman Department of Music, Multimedia, Theatre and Dance at (718) 960-8247 or email music@lehman.cuny.edu.

Global Warming De-Mystified

Description: Award-winning astrophysicist/author Jeffrey Bennett will offer a presentation on global warming that points to solutions that all can agree on.

Details: 2-3:15 p.m. on Tuesday, April 16 in the East Dining Room, Music Building.

Contact: For more information email Esther.Wilder@lehman.cuny.edu.

The Race Between Education and Catastrophe

Description: Award-winning astrophysicist/author Jeffrey Bennett will lecture on why teaching is so important, and why so many people focus their lives on education, plus offer strategies for success in teaching math and science.

Details: 4 p.m. on Tuesday, April 16 in the East Dining Room, Music Building.

Contact: For more information email Esther.Wilder@lehman.cuny.edu.

April 17

Disability Rights New York

Description: Information session on legal rights and resources in New York City that protect individuals with disabilities, focusing on accessibility, housing, and employment. Sarah Smith, a New York City attorney specializing in disability rights, will be the guest speaker.

Details: 2-4 p.m. on Wednesday, April 17 in Room 213, Leonard Lief Library.

Contact: For more information, call Lehman's Office of Student Disability Services at (718) 960-8441 or email disability.services@lehman.cuny.edu.

“Let My People Vote”

Description: “Let My People Vote,” a short film directed by Gilda Brasch about voting rights for formerly incarcerated individuals, will be screened, followed by a panel discussion featuring the director and Joseph D. Alli from the Parole Preparation Project. Hosted by the Social Justice Speaker Series and the Re-Entry Committee at Lehman College.

Details: 6-7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, April 17 in the Faculty Dining Room, Music Building.

Contact: To RSVP and for more information, please call Penny Prince at (718) 960-7796 or email Penny.Prince@lehman.cuny.edu.

April 24

Doing Business with NYC Public Education

Description: Representatives of The City University of New York (CUNY) and the New York City Department of Education (DOE) will discuss how to connect with procurement decision makers and about upcoming CUNY and DOE business opportunities.

Details: 8-10 a.m. on Wednesday, April 24 at The Graduate Center, CUNY, 365 5th Ave., Manhattan.

Contact: For more information, call (718) 960-8806 or email sbdc.bronx@lehman.cuny.edu.

April 27

Complexions Contemporary Ballet—a David Bowie Tribute

Description: The groundbreaking dance troupe now celebrating its 25th anniversary performs a powerful and moving tribute to the late David Bowie and his remarkable musical career.

Details: 8 p.m. on Saturday, April 27 in the Lehman Center for the Performing Arts. Ticket prices are VIP $75, $45, $40, $25, and $10 for children 12 and under.

Contact: For more information and tickets, visit lehmancenter.org. Media interested in attending should please RSVP to Leah Grammatica at leahgram@aol.com.

For more information about Lehman College, visit:

<http://www.lehman.edu>

-end-

Media contact:

Tom Staudter

Thomas.Staudter@lehman.cuny.edu

(718) 960-8710